Does this report include all interests?

This Property Interest Report only serves as a guide to interests that relate to this property not recorded on the Certificate of Title.

Landgate does not have access to all interest information that affects property in Western Australia. There may be other interests that relate to the property, where that information is currently not available to Landgate. For information on other known interests not in this report, see

1 in 100 AEP Floodplain Development Control Area

Responsible agency:

Department of Water and Environmental Regulation

Definition of Interest:

1 in 100 Annual Exceedance Probability (AEP) Floodplain Development Control Area delineates land that may be affected by the 1 in 100 AEP flooding and therefore subject to development control.

Affect of Interest:

This property has been identified as either being:

- within the 1 in 100 AEPI floodplain; or
- within 300 metres of the floodplain and may be affected by flooding during a 1 in 100 AEP flood.

Please note: Where risk has been identified to a property within this report and construction has occurred on the land, contact your relevant Local Government Authority for management remediation plans relevant to your property, or for properties being purchased off the plan, contact your developer.

1 in 100 AEP Floodplain Areas:

Floodplain Development Strategy Area - Swan River (Upstream of Fremantle to the Causeway and Canning Bridge) - Perth

Coverage - DWER - BMT WBM: Swan and Helena Rivers Flood Study and Floodplain Management Plan - Hydraulic Modelling Final Report; see AEP flood event rasters (T:\S&P\WA&A\WRA\Floodplain Management\FPM\Swan River\EMRC Swan River Review\02_Hydraulics\09b_Hydraulic_Modelling_Data) & Furgo: Armadale to Dunsborough Lidar Survey (2008)

The Floodplain Development Strategy for the area recommends that proposed development that is located:

- outside of the floodway is considered acceptable with respect to major flooding, however, a minimum habitable floor level of 0.50 metre above the adjacent 1 in 100 AEP flood level is generally recommended;
- within the floodway and is considered obstructive to major river flooding is not acceptable.

There is a 1% chance of the 1 in 100 AEP flood level (or greater) occurring in any one year. Larger floods will occur but will be less frequent.

As some flood risk can be mitigated through appropriate building conditions imposed by Local Government, the relevant Local Government can be contacted to ascertain if the flood risk to this property has been mitigated.

The Department of Water and Environmental Regulation (DWER) can be contacted on (08) 6364 7600 or flood@water.wa.gov.au for further site specific flood information or see www.water.wa.gov.au.

so disturbance and potential environmental damage can be avoided where possible. ASS risk areas are grouped into two classes according to the probability and depth of ASS and potential for disturbance.

Affect of Interest:

The area of interest is categorised into the following class or classes of ASS risk.

Note: Where more than one risk level exists at any one location within a site, the higher risk level will apply.

Please note: Where risk has been identified to a property within this report and construction has occurred on the land, contact your relevant Local Government Authority for management remediation plans relevant to your property, or for properties being purchased off the plan, contact your developer.

Acid Sulfate Soil Risk Map, Swan Coastal Plain:

Risk Class - 2.0

Risk Level - Moderate to low risk

- Class 1 – there is a high to moderate risk of disturbing ASS materials at this site. WA Planning Commission will impose a condition on planning proposals in Class 1 areas.

- Class 2 – there is a moderate to low risk of disturbing ASS materials at this site. However, if site characteristics or local knowledge indicate the potential presence of ASS, further investigations are recommended, particularly if excavating more than 100 cubic metres of soil or carrying out dewatering/drainage works.

WA Planning Commission (WAPC) is responsible for land use planning and land development in WA. A WAPC Acid Sulfate Soils Self Assessment Form must be submitted to the Department of Water and Environmental Regulation (DWER) before planning approval is granted.

Risk Level - Low or unknown risk

Occasional very high risk

The selected area is in a region that experiences severe problems with nuisance and disease carrying mosquitoes in some years, depending on environmental conditions.

Frequent high and occasional very high risk

The selected area is in a region that frequently experiences problems with nuisance and disease carrying mosquitoes, and severe issues are also experienced in some years depending on environmental conditions.

Low or unknown risk

This location has not experienced high rates of mosquito-borne disease in the past. However, the sporadic nature of mosquito-borne disease outbreaks means that this is not necessarily a precise indicator of future risk. Furthermore, regions with low or no resident human population may also be classified as low risk even though there may be an undocumented high risk in the area. Finally, significant mosquito nuisance issues may still be experienced, despite a low health risk.

Residents are advised to avoid exposure to mosquitoes and minimise mosquito breeding around the home as appropriate, particularly following extreme weather events such as heavy rainfall, high tides (in coastal areas) or localised flooding that may create abnormally large areas of mosquito breeding habitat.

For information on mosquito control in your local area or to report a mosquito problem please contact your Local Government Environmental Health Officer.

For more information about mosquito management, contact the Environmental Health Directorate on (08) 9388 4999 or email medical.entomology@health.wa.gov.au or see http://ww2.health.wa.gov.au/Articles/J_M/Mosquito-management.

imbalance in the current is detected. At least two RCDs must be fitted before land title is transferred.

Affect of Interest:

All home sellers and landlords must ensure that RCDs are installed in accordance with the Electricity Regulations to protect all power points and lighting circuits. RCDs cut the electricity supply instantly if a person touches a live part and receives a shock. By installing two or more RCDs, the property's circuits can be divided evenly between them, ensuring some light and power remains if one RCD operates. Multiple RCDs also avoid nuisance operation caused by appliances with low-level leakage currents. All properties constructed after 2000 should already have two RCDs fitted. Two RCDs must be fitted to protect all power points and lighting circuits in all homes before the land title is transferred. If you are planning to sell your home and it does not already have two RCDs protecting all power point and lighting circuits, you will need to engage a licensed electrical contractor to install them to comply with the Electricity Regulations.

Landlords must ensure RCDs are installed in accordance with the Electricity Regulations. If RCDs are not fitted, tenants should contact the managing agent or landlord and request that RCDs be installed as required.

Affect of Interest:

The Building Regulations 2012 in Western Australia requires owners to have mains-powered smoke alarms fitted to all dwellings that are subject to transfer of ownership, rent and hire, regardless of when they were built.

The smoke alarms must:

- be installed in the dwelling in accordance with the Building Code of Australia applicable at the time of installation of the alarms;
